Statements made in the messages of the guestbook reflect only the views of their authors.

arun ramteke from INDIA	Airbus, you guys have always stretched, extended and redefined civil aviation. A380 just extends that philosophy exclusively! Keep up the good job always!
John McConnell from Belfast - Northern Ireland	Congratulations to all at Airbus, There is only one thing that I can say FANTASTIC. Good Luck
M A Z O N G A P I E R R E from BRAZZAVILLE REP. DU CONGO	BON COURAGE POUR LE DEVELOPPEMENT TECHNOLOGIQUE DE VOTRE COMPAGNIE
Karen Summers from Bristol UK	Congratulations to all my colleagues and partners at Airbus that have been part of this amazing project, this is a proud day for us all, can't wait for the First flight
Cyrus Swire from Karlstad, Sweden	There is nothing on earth that can mach my love and admiration for all you hard working employees of Airbus all round the world. Let me tell you how proud I am to have followed this company since I was 10 years old! Airbus sunshine of my life, Airbus bring so much joy I like! Good Luck to you all! Thank you ALL SO MUCH! :-D :-) :-o
Martin Dolan from Dublin/Ireland	Congradulations to all concerned - eclipses 747 launch, a momerable event in itself. Wishing you success with all flight testing.
Francis Pang from United Kingdom	Congratulations to the Airbus team on a magnificent achievement of super jumbo proportions. Since the unveiling of concorde, this is the biggest aviation landmark in decades. Don't understand why the Boeing 747 was never stretched all the way back on the upper deck, but Airbus have done it - the A380 is beautiful. Looking forward to getting on board one of these birds soon.
	Congratulation with the new AIR(craft)bus... It's great... To Airbus!!!!
Tim Cos from Eindhoven, The Netherlands	Greetings, A great airplane freak :) Tim
Edward Escudero from Houston. TX. U.S.A	My best wishes to your impressive aircraft. Congratulations!
Luc Noyelle from France	L'Europe du 20 ieme siecle est la cause de 2 guerres mondiales. L'Europe du 21 ieme siecle est symbolisee par ce projet exceptionnel et emouvant. Felicitations
Roland Thomas from Malaysia	Congratulations on the wonderful achievment of the A380 launch. We praise God for it. I would also like to state that the A380 achievement would NOT have been possible if not for your great men like Bernard Zeigler, Pierre Baud, Andre Forte, Eves Benoist etc. men who set the stage, as early as when I knew them in 1979, for 2-men cockpit; Fly-by-wire; common crew rating for all Airbus types. Well done Airbus. Rgds, Capt Thomas
Markus Bielinski from Germany	Einfach genial das Flugzeug, das ist die Zukunft!!!!

Tay Tshung Ching from Kota Kinabalu, Malaysia	I just cant believe it with my own eyes when I witnessed the ceremony short while ago on the BBC news. This is probably the most amazing, technologically advanced aircraft that I ever seen. It is the plane that will bring us into the 21st century of flying experience. I just cant wait to travel on board once Malaysia Airlines had got it's 1st delivery. Conratulations to the Airbus team!
Borje Larsson from Sweden	Congratulation to a very fine airplane, I hope to fly with it some day
Atanu Roy from London, UK	Good luck with A380 Congratulations - outstanding achievement - can't wait to fly in one!
mair gerhard from windhoek namibia	ich freue mich das ich sowas noch erleben darf die besten gruesse fuer dieses europaeische projekt gerd mair
Max Eigenmann from Switzerland	I also was one of the stress engineers that has worked on the A380 in toulouse. It was quite an honor to do so and am very much looking forward to its first flight. To all you hard working people at AIRBUS that made this project possible - keep up the good work!
Steve Pittwood from Bedfordshire, UK	Fantastic achievement, proud to be a fellow european!
Luciano Beux from Brazil	Congratulations Airbus. We are looking forward to the test flights and specially to board a brand new A380.
Dewar Bennesby from São Paulo / Brasil	Congratulações e muitos bons negócios para A380. Espero estar voando nessa maravilha o mais breve possível.
Bengt Petersen from Sweden	Go for it You beatifull Queen of the blue sky, technology and design at it´s glance. Good Luck
Jeff Rallet from France	Very proud as European citizen, very proud to be provider of Airbus. Well done for this fantastic achievement.
Andrew Picken from Australia	One GIANT LEAP for mankind! Well done to all involved on a magnificent aircraft.
Barry Varty from Durban South Africa	Congratulations Airbus! You have got it Wright.
Ezio Pascucci from Italy	new A380 it's amazing..... i'm ready for take off!!!! congratulations Airbus and whole Europe
Attilio Pisani from Napoli / Italy	It's a milestone! Congratulations Congratulations!! What a great aircraft. Looks like a dolphin to me! Europe at its best!
Christian Mohr from Germany	I can't wait to see the A380 fly! kind regards, Christian
Ra'ed Ayoub from Qatar	Another Milestone in the aviation indutry has been achieved, as the A380 will become an integral part of the waelthy histry of aviation Ra'ed Ayoub
John Spencer from England	She looks great in the new colours,when is the first flight set for now????????????????
Rafael Lasso from Bogota / Colombia	Superb and outstanding work. This is the beginning of a new aeronautical era. Congratulations to all the European countries involved in this project.
Gander Halifax from Thailand	Congratulations to all of people who involve in this project especially the workers and A380's engineers.
Henk Sijpkens from Stadskanaal/NL	What a privilege to be a witness of the 'birth' of such a great plane, Congratulations Airbus
Dhiraj Cherian from Tokyo/Japan	A toast to your gargantuan success. Hope it outshines all existing planes in the sky, especially in travel comfort and safety.

Massimiliano Riolfo from Italy	Very 'huge' enterprise...
Robert Sotito from Etats-Unis	Felicitations et meilleures voeux a votre appareil le plus grand! Etre un citoyen europeean c'est d'etre un citoyen mondiale!!
Edwin Ramirez from Canada	Congratulation Airbus and all those companies that are part of this modern day marvel. Without each one of you history wouldn't have been created. I can't wait to see the A380 in full swing. All the best in your future endeavours!!
Carsten Andersen from Copenhagen - Denmark	Neil Armstrong said 'That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind.' The same must be said about the impressive A380 - a giant leap for aviation and a extraordinary engineering challenge.
FRANK O. GORASH III from U.S.a.	WHAT WOULD THE WRIGHT BROTHERS SAY' ??? 'A GIFT TO HUMANITY' 'IT'S A GOOD TIME TO BE ALIVE' Congratulations!
Frans Utt from The Netherlands	A truly very nice airplane. Something to make us Europeans proud. I hope te be able to book a flight on one of them.
Alastair Grant from London	Congratulations on achieving today's ceremony. I am delighted and proud of our association with Airbus. A piece of Europe that really works!
Joop Wiegant from The Netherlands	Congratulations! Fantastic! Never thought this would really happen. I'm proud there's Dutch material involved in the construction of the A380 as well. Let it fly through the whole of the sky.
Alberto Diaz from Bogota/Colombia	Airbus A380: The best and biggest. The European answer to a challenging world. Aerospace engineering still has the preeminent visionary muscle in this hand-held-electronic era.
Richard Noble from Canada	From Mechanical Engineer to NMC Machine operator, from programmer to programme manager, from the board room and financial backers to shirt sleeves on the shop floor this was a fantastic, fantastic effort with an equally fantastic result. Can't wait to fly this majestic bird. Congratulations on a terrific achievement to all involved.
	Richard very good product
john van zoelen from the netherlands	viel gluck und verkauf safe flight john
safwat abd el-baset from egypt-cairo	i am really do not know what to say, it make me shocked, i am really so glad that airbus made this magic skyship and i hope that i can be on it one day
Harald Bauer from Knittelfeld/Austria	HI Gongratultaion for this airplane and good luck many greetings

alex lara from Caracas Venezuela	What an engineering feat! Can´t wait to see the aircraft take off. Hopefully sales will outpass the numbers expected. I am a little concerned however about the practicity and and the feasibility of the plane in terms of investment. It eases me to relaize that the 380 will be a cost savings vehicle due to its capacity to transport more passengers, thus reducing costs by cutting daily flights.
Mikhail Zhukov from St.Petersburg/Russia	Best Wishes!! Congratulations! Wish you all the best.
Alain Narinx from Mortsel (Antwerp), Belgium	I followed this project since the news of its conception as the 'A3XX', and it is truly exciting to see how this airplane is finally rolled out into production. I consider it to be a fine example of European cooperation. If only our national and European MP's were as cooperative, it'd be nice :) Anyway, I'd like to congratulate the Airbus-team with this exceptional performance and I wish the A380 a safe journey for many years to go.
Paul Harrison from Westerville, United States	Congratulations Airbus. Congratulations to all of the men and women that worked so hard for so long, in order to make this day possible. I know that it is hard to describe the excitement that one feels as part of such a Cutting-Edge team, as part of a programme where Innovation is truly the order of the day. The roll-out of the A-380 is a milestone for which I have personally waited a long time. I am truly fascinated with the technology and innovation borne out of the A-380 programme, and I am looking forward to the first flight... It is truly wonderful to see the fruit borne out of the labor of real cooperation, and to that end I am sure that Airbus and the many citizens of the E.U. must be proud. I too continue to wish the Airbus consortium nothing but success with the A-380, and all ongoing and future endeavors. Sincerely, -PRHarrison
Ernesto Duo from Barcelona, Spain	Congratulations!. My best wishes for this incredible aircraft and for your company. I hope this project will create many jobs and contribute to the industrial development of Europe. I´m looking forward to fly in the A 380!.
Bertrand Augé from France	Today, I am proud to be French, European forgive me. I hope the future generations will have same pleasure and sensations as this day for the world industry of aviation.
Sanjay d'Humieres from Paris FRANCE	WELL DONE AIRBUS!! It is time we show American what we are capable of doing as United Europeans. This will be the greatest revolution in air travel to date. SOMETHING TO BE REALLY PROUD OF! Well done to all the technicians working on this prject you are doing me proud.

Shrikant Rao from Mumbai, India	The arrival of the large bodied A380 passenger jet on the international aviation horizon was long overdue, not just due to increasing traffic volumes, but also on account of the acute need for upgradation in inflight standards. Veritably history has been made on this day. Travelers all over the world will now look forward to the day in the very near future when they will be able to savour the comforts of this technological marvel. Our best wishes to all the people at Airbus Industrie who have worked hard to make A 380 possible. Happy flying!
Jason C from Australia	Congratulations to Airbus The A380 is a stunning bird. Great new Company Colourscheme. Cant wait to see it fly
John C. Ferwerda from Netherlands	Congratulations Airbus with another magnificent aircraft, like all other Airbus's. Well ahead in technology. Shows Europe can deliver great products, like also the GSM system, when companies work together. Can't wait to be onboard.
ivo Meers from Netherlands	Proud to be a supplier!!
Daniel Vilhelmsen from Virum denmark	The Airbus 380-800 are the best aircraft in the world
MARIANO GABRIEL GIRINI from BUENOS AIRES - ARGENTINE	Welcome A380 !!! Have a great Life !!! Regards
Serge FORMISANI from Belgium	Félicitations pour la technique, meilleurs voeux de pleine réussite commerciale et happiest flying hours for the PNC
Fostier Pierrick from Toulouse (France)	Superbe oiseau qui va survoler dans quelques semaines le toit de ma nouvelle maison en construction pas loin d'Aéroconstellation. Vivement le premier vol!!!! Hallo AIRBUS,
Christoph Schweiger from Oppenau/Deutschland	ich finde ihre Flugzeuge die besten die es je gab. Besonders den AIRBUS A380. Weiterhin viel Glück!!! Christoph Schweiger, 12 Jahre, Oppenau den 18.01.05
Georg Wentz from Stockholm, Sweden	Congratulations, the A380 is just an excellent craftsmanship. I wish A380 and the company best of luck all over the world. Waiting to leave with an airplane ..the A380 of course. Regards Georg Wentz
John Batchelor from Rugby	What a success story! The A380 is here and with the A400M and the A350 hot on it's tail. Everyone at Airbus should be very proud of this outstanding achievement.
Beltrami & Sulmoni Max & Thomas from Switzerland	COMPLIMENTI PER QUESTO SPLENDIDO AEREO. SPERIAMO DI POTER ESSERE PRESTO PASSEGGERI DI QUESTO AEREO. TANTI SUCCESSI!!!
Werner Reiser from Germany	Congratulations to all the involved personnel within AIRBUS to this great historic moment in civil aviation. I hope to have one opportunity to get tickets for a long distance first class flight to enjoy all the luxurious equipment ! Good luck for the Test Flight phase and full success only !
Matias Lohmann from Copenhagen, Denmark	Congatulations with the a380!!!;-) This is a new era of the world history! Bye.
Tomislav Stankovic from Serbia & Montenegro, Belgrade	Congratulations for Airbus 380. This is historical moment in aircraft industry. I will quote .Armstrong 'One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind'.

Kentaro Yahata from Japan	Congratulations! When I had heard about A380 at first, I thought that must be impossible. I apologize I had thought so. Completion of A380 must be marking its name on commercial aircraft fs history. I fd like to boarding on A380 earlier.
Joan Rovira from Sort	Somos testigos de un gran momento para la Unión Europea. Saludos
Edwin munoz from Maribor, Slovenia	I am really fan of your airplanes. I think this new project is a big step in the air navigation technology. Thanks.
Jimmy Lin from USA	It's a great feat of engineering for the aerospace community. I cannot wait to see what SQ does with it's first plane!
Christian Van Dorpe from Flanders - Belgium	Félicitations, Gut Gemacht, Fantastic, En hora buena !!! Once more Europe is proving that with cooperation between the French creativity, the German precision, the English international character, the Spanish southern flair and the Belgian (4% gentlemen !!) dedication it is the world economic power number 1 !!! Airbus is thé example of the European strenght !!!
duilio di Iella from roma - italia	é incredibile lo sviluppo che é stato realizzato dall'industria europea della produzione aeronautica e che raggiungerà il trasporto aereo con un velivolo di tale dimensione e capacità.
Frank Healy from Dublin	Congratulations and well done, Hope every one who travels on her has a safe journey.
Jorge Rubio from Torreón, Mexico	Frank Airbus, my sincere congratulations on the new A380; this is a great feat of engineering. I can't wait to see it fly for the first time, and I can't wait to be a passenger.
Lei Zhang from P.R.China	I hope I can take the new A380 as soon as possible !!
frank greco from melbourne, australia	TEAM, congratulations and well done, this truly is a magnificent aircraft and I personally cannot wait to fly in one. Good Luck today at the launch...
George Maloof from USA	WOW!!!! This looks like a SUPER plane, GOOD LUCK with sales, can't wait to see it in person.
cesare villa from italy	In aviazione il senso della sfida non ha bisogno di obiettivi per giustificare un nuovo passo in avanti. Fino a che saremo più pesanti dell'aria la sfida continuerà nel nome del più veloce del più grande del più ardito e in questa visione l' A380 costituisce un importante traguardo.
Bruce Bartman from Las Vegas, Nevada USA	Congratulations! I can't wait to see the A380 on this side of the Pond! I can't wait to fly on the A380! What an incredible and beautiful Aircraft you have developed. Good Luck and Happy Flying AIRBUS!
Ortiz Basseur Luis Carlos from Bogota, Colombia	CONGRATULATIONS !!! A great contribution to making the world, closer to everyone, in safer and cheaper conditions, not to forget a less contaminated habitat.
Ana Mireia García from Madrid/Spain	Espero algún día poder trabajar en un proyecto tan interesante como el A-380, ya una realidad con la que supongo todos los que amamos este sector nos deleitaremos.
Eduardo Couto Santos from Lisboa - Portugal	I'm happy for be alive to see what the human engine can do. I also hope soon to travel at a A380. I have a world of friends and far-way people waiting and Airbus can connect me with them quickly. Only a remark: I w'll like to see much more photos and movies about A380 at the Web-site. I stay waiting for more and more and more ...
CHAK KAM LI from Hong Kong	What a honorable moment!! So congratulation to the Airbus Airline for its huge achievement. NOW I am looking forward for the Cathay Pacific to purchase such plane and I know that I would buy the ticket wherever it will goes to immediately.

Karl Broecker from Stuttgart-Germany	Congratulations to the Airbus Team for the achievement of creating such an impressive airplane. I am sure it will succeed in the airline industry of our young century. I cannot wait to board the A380! Finally - those who produce the gloom and doom about the project will get used to sail in the tailwinds of the A380.
Rodolfo Benitez from Mexico city/Mexico	It is a great step to air travel I wish the best of success for this aircraft and hope to fly in one day best of luck.
Felix CHapman from United Kingdom	The best. Only Airbus could do this.
Cal Waldhart from Beloit, Wisconsin, USA	Awesome is the only word befitting such an enormous beast. Best of luck with her and Godspeed A380!
corazon lancaster from u.s.a.	I'm having goosebumps just thinking the biggest airplane ever is going to be inaugurated. It would a dream come true to fly in one of these great invention. Good luck, hope to fly on one of these. Best Wishes, Corazon Lancaster Your success is from now on part of the Aviation History greatest accomplishments... Congratulations Helio Meneses Toronto Canada
Helio Meneses from Toronto - Canada	Congrats Airbus. The A380 is just gorgeous! And very nice paint scheme, simple and good choice of the colours. Just wating to see it flying in his first flight, hope to be in Toulouse. Cheers
Pedro Becken from Porto / Portugal	Good Luck Airbus and Happy Flying!! This is a view of how big is the history of our continent. Another time, Europe is the mirror where all the countries want to see themselves. The cradle of the occident civilization shows another time how far it can go. Congratulations, all of you are the best.
Lars-Gunnar Geijer from Sweden	Congratulations to all of you participate into this humangas project. You just wrote history in Aviation achievements! Congratulations to all engineers and mechanics that where directly or indirectly involve and proved that mankind can do and build anything! The era in aeronautics just start a new page, the page of strategic air transportation construction of airships. I am one of you people. Aviation has been the APU of my life. I am prude of you! Keep on the spirit... Best regards to you, George K. Merianos Corfu-Greece
Luis Gustavo San Emeterio from Madrid/Spain	Let`s go...I want to travel!!!!!!!!!!!!
George Merianos from Corfu-Greece	Llongyfarchiadau ar awyren arbennig iawn. Mae heddiw yn ddiwrnod pwysig i Gymru ac i Ewrop.
MARIA JOSE TORIBIO from MADRID	Gefeliciteerd met de Airbus 380. Ga zo door en dat KLM ze ook krijgt dan hebben we ze hier in Nederlands ook! Good luck
MARIA JOSE TORIBIO from MADRID	A great day for the aviation history. Finally, Europe becomes a worldwide in civil aviation supremacy after a too long american monopoly! Looking forward to flying on board of the super A380! ;-)

P.J v. Woudenberg from Netherlands	Good luck to the Airbus team and the stunning A380! Congrats on an amazing achievement!
Stefano PM from Italy	One complaint. 'Reveal' is a verb, not a noun, or an adjective. If I bought you lunch and said 'here is the eat', I think you would wonder about my command of the language:)
Victor Manuel Ortega Arroyo from Spain
Barbro Kaczmar from Sweden
Larry Bliss from Raleigh, USA

Dan Isaac from Madrid	You are writing a new chapter in the history of civil aviation. Congratulations to all at Airbus.
Danilo Planas from Makati/Philippines	Thanks for the understanding and effort to provide the needs of the air traveller. What was marvelous is the ability of several nations to create such a project and i hope it will extend into other peaceful efforts as well.
	Félicitations sur cette brillante réussite historique pour l'aviation civile. Je vous souhaite le plus grand succès avec cet appareil phénoménal qui bat tous les records.
Michel Gammon from Canada	Tous les aviateurs du monde attendent avec impatience le premier vol de ce géant des airs. Michel Gammon Pilote
BRUNEL Laurent from 07300 PLATS (FRANCE)	félicitations !!! et le reve devient réalité. je languis de pouvoir voir voler cet avion sur réaliste. et je rêve de pouvoir etre un des futurs passagers... quelle machine grandiose!!!
Barbro Kaczmar from Sweden	Good luck to the Airbus team and the stunning A380!
Vince Pryke from UK	Simply awesome. Good luck in its progress into flight.
Gabriel Jaime Quiroga from Windsor/ Canada	Felicitaciones, es el desarrollo de la tecnologia europea al servicio de la paz y no de la guerra. Exitos
	Congratulations to all involved in this fantastic BIRD. Of course I would like to be part of this history, but no problem, just watching the roll out from here was enough.
Denny Ihara from Brasil	Congratulations again. PARABENS !!!! Denny Ihara
David Mapleston from Nottingham	I wonder what boeing are thinking?? AIRBUS.....job well done!!

Christine Keenan from Canada	Wow! Quelle magnifique réussite pour l'Europe! Je vous félicite pour votre vision et votre avant-gardisme. J'ai bien hâte de pouvoir, un jour, mettre le pied dans cette merveille de l'air. Félicitations!
Arnaut SLOWEY from Lamanon - France	I look forward to fly in this new wonder, the A380, Wishing it to be the star of the sky for many, many years - good luck and congratulations to the team that brought it to life.
Marian Dorin Tomsa from Romania	Good fly A380!
Chris Hühnergath from Mainz, Germany	Congratulations to all the developers of the Airbus A380. In my opinion the new Airbus is the most impressive symbol of European partnership and cooperation. It is an example that people with different cultural backgrounds can create an imposing result if they cooperate with each other!
Hung Ben Chak from Hong Kong	Congratulations that A380 has come out this morning and I am really excited about I can have chance to be onboard in this flying city, it's a magic....coool :)
Jamel Eddine SEGHAIER from Tunis-TUNISIA	Great admiration for the World-Class Airbus Team. This is a real MILESTONE for Airbus and the aeronautics industry. I know why the number 8, because it has two levels... My explanation is as follows : 8 in A380 simply means it's the '8th WONDER of the World' NB : Before the arrival of A380, we just have 7 WONDERS... A380 is Aeronautics REDEFINED for the 21st Century. I hope a great success and bright future for Airbus. GRAND BRAVO pour les Femmes & les Hommes de Airbus. Jamel Eddine SEGHAIER
Dirk Jan Remijn from The Netherlands	Many congratulations on the launch of your new plane. I wish this model and its future passengers a safe flight. Lots of success! DJ
Florian Bolle from Telgte/Germany	Wow! Eine beeindruckende Show und ein großartiges Flugzeug!! Ein großer Tag für Europa!!
Chris R. from Chantilly, VA	What a superb aircraft! Congratulations to Airbus and all of the A380 Team. All those years of work look like they paid out nicely. I'm interested in seeing how Boeing reacts in their 7E7 design. Great Job!!! Now, about this little thing called wake-turbulence. I'll make sure to give your equipment plenty of separation when departing and arriving at IAD in my little CRJ. Best of luck in flight testing. - C.R.
Luis Enrique Romero from Mexico	This is a triumph of the human spirit, it should encourage all countries to engage in a positive competition for the well of all people

Panos Kladis from Athens,Gr	Congratulations to Airbus for completing a dream for the airliners all over the world!Let`s hope that,this Giant will overcome the expectations for much more luxurious and safe long travels.It will definitely consist a zero-point for the new millenium for whatever has to do with the History of Flights.I hope,someday,that my wife and I,will have the greatest pleasure to REALLY enjoy a flight with this miracle that ONLY Airbus would be able to create.Our best wishes and thanks to the person/s that brought up this idea,and all of the engineers that help it become reality.Hale to Airbus!!!
Jan Slokker from Netherlands	Finally the real Jumbo for this millennium!
Hui Yang Tan from Singapore	The A380 is the most stunning and amazing plane I have ever seen in my lifetime. It's one of the best when come to style, range, payload, speed. This fit perfectly to saying that the A380 is a FLAGSHIP OF THE 21th CENTURY!
Ralf Keukeleire from Brugge/Belgium	A fantastic feat of engineering and a fantastic event for allthe World. Finally the title 'Queen of the Skies' comes back to Europe.
jim-ronny jensen from sandnessjøen.norway	WOW!!!
Stuart Morrow from London	Congratulations on the launch. I look forward to seeing these wonderful aircraft airborne. I admire Airbus for their innovation and brave new design.
José M Simão from Brazil	Congratulations AIRBUS for the release of A380! A lot of success in the takeoff of this mark for the aviation!
Kiran Kolluri from Bethesda, Maryland - USA	Congratulations not only to Europe, but to all of the worldwide supplier base of Airbus to create this wonderful aircraft. The A380 is truly a marvel of modern technology and global cooperation. I have traveled by airbus constantly and I was waiting for the most important launch of the 21st century.
Luis Mattera from Brasilia/Brasil	Congratulations Airbus and Team (I hope is travelling in this Icon of new technology as soon as possible!!! Congratulations Airbus Team!!!!
paul le blanc from dartmouth,nova scotia	wow, can't wait to take a flight on the new a380.it's about time we give the american's a run for their money.
Alexandre Oliveira from Porto Alegre / BRASIL	Parabéns a todas as pessoas envolvidas no projeto e construção do A380! A Europa prova, mais uma vez, que não é apenas a américa do norte que desenvolve tecnologia aeronáutica de ponta!
Enrico Castellino from Torino,Italy	Europe do it better!
Jack See from Singapore	I Love it, the A380.

Shkumbin Koronica from Kosovo	(a European success story). Congratulations, the A380 is just amazing.
Theresa Vigil from Hialelah, Florida, USA	Congratulations on the inauguration of the A380. I viewed some of it on television this morning. Impressive!!! My son is a pilot and is current on the A330 and A340. When he was age six, he travelled with me from New York to London on an Air India B747. Seated in the lounge of the plane, he told me: 'Mom, when I grow up, I want to be a pilot and fly the largest airplane in the world.' Seems like he is on his way to it. Keep rolling them out. 'Way to go, Airbus.'
Amit Gupta from New Delhi, India	GRAND, is all that I can say. Welcome A380, The Empire State of Planes. The day is going to be written with Golden words in the History Book.

Abel Henrik from Norway	Congratulations Airbus! This is a MAJOR achievement in the history of flight, one that over time will be serving people all around our planet! Your company is one of the few converting dreams into reality, keep it up!

Stephen anthony Mellor from Stevenage ,England	Was so very proud to see such a wonderful aircraft being rolled out today, Most of all because it is European and it has shown how brilliant and diverse the people,s involved in building aircraft in Europe are for building such a incredible machine. And whilst i still think the Boeing B747 is still an incredible Aircraft , Airbus has now taken wide bodied aircraft to a new extreme, the A380 will succeed in many ways and has to be a massive step forward for air transport all over the world and for the likes of everybody who love to travel. We have been invaded by Boeing & McDonald Douglas for many years , now its time for an Airbus invasion, long may we see our Airbus,s cruise the skys of the world . Cant wait for a trip on the A380 well done to all involved.
Michael Gstettenbauer from Frankfurt/Germany	Herzlichen Glückwunsch für das Team A380! Ihr habt eine Traummaschine gebaut. Ich kann kaum warten mitfliegen zu können. Viele Happy Landings aus Frankfurt

Edmond Van Schoor from Mechelen / Belgium	The A380 is a beauty like only we Europeans can create. Proud to be a European! Congratiulations, félicitations, Glückwunsch etc. to all involved.
Patrik Hornak from Brick, New Jersey USA	WOW! The A380 will 100% revolutionize the airline industry and the way people move around the planet. I feel that every airline that flies internationally, trans-oceanic should purchase a fleet of A380's, these behemoth jetliners will make long-haul flying even more profitable, while giving the passengers an out-of-this world flight! Go A380 and goodluck to Airbus on the A350!
Michael Hermanson from Sthlm / Suede	Absolutly stunning beautiful aircraft!! Way to go Airbus Hope to see Queen of the skies soon. Reg. /Michael
BJARNE HANSEN from COPENHAGEN DENMARK	good luck vith the aircraft i hope i can try it soon.
Ankan DUTTA* AD from PARIS INT Evry France	'Nothing seems to be 'IMpossible' for AIRBUS, infact the word itself sways as I M possible!' Salute to all the men/women working passionately for long behind the scene, the researchers, the visionary leaders, conception-ists, and financiers for this breakthru innovation; and the competitors too. Let the Human Quest for soaring higher, together in a better way soar with jubilation and safer travels with A380.. AD

Alfredo Logioia from Mar del Plata, Argentina	Felicitaciones Airbus! Seguramente el nuevo A380 volará durante 50 o mas años. Espero poder volar en él!
Mohammad Nejad from London, UK	I'll just quote from scarface: 'Say hello to my little friend' Thanks Airbus for showing the world what us aeronautical engineers all believe in!
David Okel from Netherlands	CONGRATULATIONS EUROPE!!! It's amazing...
Leonard Watson from United Kingdom	Congratulations to everyone concerned with the construction of this magnificent aircraft.....how about a seat on it's inaugural flight in March? Best Wishes for the future.....Leonard Watson
Hans Liedholm from Lund, Sweden	Vive la technique moderne et les entrepreneurs framcaise!
Santiago Cortes from Colombia	Congratulations, your esforce its unbelievable...
Frank Segebade from Nordenham / Germany	Lieber A380, jetzt bist Du das größte Passagier-Flugzeug der Welt, wir alle freuen uns sehr . Bei uns in Nordenham wirst Du ja bzw. Deine Einzelteile schon seit fast 2 Jahren gebaut. Wir in Nordenham sind auch sehr stolz auf Dich und würden uns freuen wenn Du Dich mal unter den Wolken von Nordenham blicken würdest. Denn Dich zu sehen da läuft ein ein Schauer der Freude den Rücken runter. Danke und alles Gute für Dich Das Team von TRNT12
Jesper Thomsen from Copenhagen, Denmark.	Congratulations to Airbus and all the people involved. This truly is a great day, and the A380 is an example of vision, hard work and innovation, something we can all be proud of. It also sets an example for future European cooperation and a belief in, that if Europeans work together, we can achieve great things.
jorge e. muñoz m. from medellin / colombia	Felicitaciones. Este es un verdadero triunfo para toda la humanidad. Espero poder ver tan maravillosa creación en vivo y poder volar en el algún día de mi vida.
Robert Hendrickson from Philadelphia, USA	Congratulations to you in Europe who succeeded in this awesome accomplishment. What an aircraft!! It must be awesome to see in person! Maybe someday soon I'll see it land and take-off in the US!
Brian Hershey from Arcadia, USA	The Airbus A380, is an awesome airplane. The A380 is a leader for a new exciting era in commercial aviation. I know it will serve the world well for decades to come.
David Asencio from United States	May your wings take you to many places of the World. Congrats!!!!!!!!!!!!
Sebastian K. from Düren/Cologne, Germany	Hello! Sorry, but my english isn't very well. I hope it doesn't matter, when I write something in german: Die neue Airbus ist einfach spitze!! Ich finde das Flugzeug echt total geil und wünsche euch damit auch viel Erfolg! Das ist ein großer Schritt für ganz Europa in Richtung Zukunft! Jetzt nur nicht loslassen!
harry lyson from biwabik minnesota	Nice looking plane how about a ride sometime.

Mr. Frank Moonen from Lelystad Haven / Netherlands	Dear Airbus Family, Congratulations with your new flagship the A380-700 'Super-jumbo' ! It is a beautiful big aircraft with a nice shape and a large performance. With this modern Long-Range Jetliner you take finally the lead against the Boeing Family! It's a pity that KLM, not long ago became partner of Air France, have no interest in your flagship. I work as an Aircraft Ground Engineer with 747-100/200/300/400 licence. In the past I had also the A310 and this year I hope to get the A330 licence also. But I hope KLM will change his thought in the future!! I want to say to all the Airbus Family Members 'Good Luck' and may you produce a lot of A380's in the future all over the world! Greetings from, Mr. Frank Moonen
Pedro César from Tomar/ PORTUGAL	Absolutely spectacular... amazing! Airbus is always setting the standards. Congratulations to all team.
giovanni santalena from helsinki/finland	Non esistono parole !!!!! L'emozione è troppo grande !!!
Gusmão Philippe from Rio de Janeiro/Brasil	Na qualidade de brasileiro, tal como Santos Dumont, que, no início do século passado, buscou na França o terreno fértil para semear suas idéias, congratulo-me com o povo frances, nesta data tão significativa para a aviação mundial. Vive La France! Vive Le Airbus A380 !
manfred juengling from barcelona/spain	i wake up from the melody of my dreams,its reality that my airbus take me to all my new destinys greetings from barcelona manfred juengling aircraft-engineer and artist
Brian R. Latz from Cedarburg, Wisconsin	Congradulations. It's a proud day for the industry and all that have participated in the program.
Jacques Côté from Québec, Canada	Toutes mes félicitations aux hommes et aux femmes qui ont réussi ce défi technologique. Il ne me reste plus maintenant que d'essayer ce merveilleux appareil. Longue vie au A-380.

Bernhard Edlbacher from Vienna/Austria	Dear Airbus-Team! I am happy about the new A380. Big gratulations. I am writing a disertation about the A380 on airport pavement by ACN/PCN-methode at vienna's technical university. It is a great idea their are possibilities to win an A380 model. It would make me much more lucky to win it, because I am absolutely a fan of it, I also built a model in 1:144. I would send you some photos if there would be possibilities. Today it is a great day. Nice greatings, yours Bernhard Edlbacher
Manfred Hoogenboom from Netherlands	It ´s a beauty! An other big step forward in design, performance and functionality. This aircraft truly enables airlines to become even more customer oriented and offer passengers the comfort they desire to have during long distance flights. Flying the A380 for the first time will set free those emotions experienced during ones first flight ever.

	Estimados Sres.:
	Como europeo y aficionado a la aviación quiero expresarles el enorme orgullo que me embarga por la presentación del A380. Mi más sincera enhorabuena.
Fernando Díaz Vilela from Güímar/Tenerife/España	Por otra parte quisiera proponerles el 'mote' a tan colosal avión, y este es JONAS, por la historia de Jonás y la ballena.

Frank O'Connor from Dublin Ireland	I am very excited with the launch of the A380 and am hoping some day flying in it. Maybe my son Alan who we are very proud of works in Airbus may be able to bring his dad for a flight some day. Continued success leaving Boeing behind
Fernando Gomez from S/C de Tenerife / Spain	Maravilloso. Estoy desenado volar en el.
Carlos Presumido from Portugal	I just want to get my feet on it a leave the ground.
Jesse Helinski from United States	Congratulations Airbus for making aviation history! The A380 is magnificent!
Les Smith from Australia	Wow Airbus yuv'e out done your self again.
William Tondopan from PApua New Guinea	The A380 is very beautiful to see.
Jean Claude Petit from Edmonton Canada	Congratulations!!! Its nice to see that old dame Europe can still do better than uncle Sam. Proud to be French today
Bruno Talotta from USA	Congratulation on this bold venture. Airbus listened to their customer and produced a craft they only dreamed of. Now it has come to fruition and aviation will never be the same. Good Luck
ARMANDO MATOS from PORTO, PORTUGAL	BIG THINKING,BIG HOPES, BIG EXPECTATIONS,BIG COOPERATION, BIG PLANE.....BIG FUTURE ARMANDO MATOS PORTO PORTUGAL
Andre Vale from Cambridge/Canada	I want to congratulate Airbus and Europe on this amazing achievement. this makes me proud to be Portuguese and European, Go A380 Go.
Geoffrey Vidal from Orléans / France	With the Airbus's A380 reveal and the ESA's Huygens success, I feel really proud to be European these days ! Congruatulations to all the european scientists who have worked hard on it GO EUROPE !
Ronald Numan from The Netherlands	My concratulations for creating this beautifull new and innovative aircraft. Greetings from a plain-spotter in Holland! Hope to see it land at Schiphol airport, soon!

Ilkka Kentala from Helsinki, Finland	What a great day for European aviation industry! This really shows what we can achieve by working together. I'm sure the A380 will be a success and a milestone in transportation history. Just can't wait to see it 'in the flesh'!
Stephanie Tate from London, UK	Unbelievable! The perfect plane! I am looking forward to the test flight in late March/April please can I have a seat on this!! AGAIN... from Concorde onto A380 Europe REALLY has not only the style but the technology!
Luiz Peixoto from Miami/FL	Como passageiro espero ansioso para voar neste gigante... e como agente de viagens poder oferecer em breve ao meus cliente. A primeira classe desta aeronave realmente é um sonho!!
Oscar Sartori from Córdoba/Argentina	Felicitaciones y éxito en el emprendimiento y ejemplo para el mundo de la cultura tecnológica, colaborativa y asociativa, al servicio de la humanidad.
Darius Baria from Bristol, UK	It was sad to see Concorde land for the last time here at Filton in Bristol but this will be countered by the fantastic day when the A380 lands here for the first time!
Reza Khayyami from USA	What a wonderful plane. Congratulations and good luck in the future.
oscar aguilar from Miami	A very impressive jet I have been flying in the air bus in the past years TACA airlines from El Salvador and they are very nice I hope in the future I have the opportunity to fly in this A380 when they are in service I want to congratulate you guys for the beautiful jet you have done.
Olivier Morel from France	Congratulation ! A new generation of plane is born. This 18 of January 2005 will stay in the history and in my mind. The A380 will revolutionize definitely aviation. Good luck for the future and I'm in a hurry to travel on the new and Magnificent A380.
Antonio Martins from Braga/Portugal	Congratulations!! Thanks for such a 'gift'... I have no words to comment this moment. Congratulations
Dennis Lewin from Newark,UK	This great achievement shows what European technology can produce - World leadership in aircraft design and construction. Rolls-Royce particularly deserve great credit for the very large proportion of orders specifying the Trent 900 engine.
Yves Mondoux from Montréal, Canada	Félicitations à Airbus qui met de l'avant l'intelligence extraordinaire de l'homme. J'espère avoir l'occasion de voyager dans ce Palace des airs.
Eyhab Algozaibi from Bahrain	I would like to congratulate the Airbus industry for the release of the A380. It brings back memory of when the A300 was inaugurated. My grandfather (Mother's father) Bruno Wender used to work with the Airbus Industry in Hamburg Germany, and he told me the story of the A300. I wish he could have seen it.
Keyvan Behpour from Milford, CT, USA	Bravo, what a magnificent machine, I LOVE to fly and most of my flights to IRAN are on AIRBUS planes, great flying machines.....I would love to be able to photograph the A380, is that a possibility....
Kees van der Steen from Netherlands	I was working 15 for KLM in Schiphol, Amsterdam Airport. (KLM, now a company owned by Air France) Because of my past (working for KLM) I am extremely interested in airplanes and airplane technology. I know it will take more than a year before your new plane, the Airbus A380, after many many tests, will receive its air certificate from FAA. During that test process there comes a time that you have to rest flying with passengers. I like to volunteer for that if possible. You can always mail me. Good flights and happy landing with your superior new product the Airbus A380.
neil aves from London UK	11th December 1967 - Toulouse, the roll out of Concorde 001. The A380 can't claim to be as sleek or as fast but still beautiful in her own way. Good luck to all involved with the project. What will Airbus be unveiling in another 38 years?
Blair Cockburn from Edinburgh, Scotland	My Uncle works for Cathay Pacific in Hong Kong, and is amazed by the craftsmanship put into the A380, and so am I.

Tony Beamish from France & South Africa	Congratulations on this momentous achievement. Regards, Tony Beamish (Tarn et Garonne & Cape Town)
Dave Duncan from Ontario/USA	Truely a marvel and technological masterpiece. All those invovled should be commended on their foresight and commitment to this outstanding accomplishment! I look forward to my first flight.
Caleb McCarty from Temiskaming Shores, Canada	I think that the A380 is the greatest airliner since the 747! The people at Airbus are the greatest people in airplane technology and aircraft design. Caleb
Manuel Mogo from Sintra	Congratulions. Airbus. I flew in all Airbus and I hope I can fly in teh A380. Unfortunately Lisbon Airport, can't receive your plain. Congratulations !!!!
ivan castilho from florianopolis / brazil	The Airbus airplanes is the most beatiful plane of the world. ivan
GUNDOLF BUTZKE from Timbó-SC- BRAZIL	Parabéns AIRBUS ! - O avião me parece uma maravilha voadora...espero poder voar neste belo avião, cujo projeto traz o que há de mais moderno e avançado na aviação. - Sucesso e Sucesso ! Gundolf Butzke
Jan Corstjens from Den Bosch, Pays Bas	I wish you a lot of success with this magnificent airplane and many save flying hours in the future!
Deep Singh from USA	Congratulations!!! Can't wait to take a ride in it!
Jim Clarke from Ohio, USA	Congratulations to the Airbus team! Truely an awesome aircraft.
Robert Webb from York/UK	I've just witnessed the unveiling of the A380 - and I just wanted to congratulate the whole of the team involved. The aircraft is beautiful to the eye and I am sure that the technological boundaries of aviation have been taken to new heights, without compromisng safety. Congratulations again on having the vision to conceptualise, design and build this aircraft. May your sales be many!
Vasanthan Veerasingham from Melbourne, Auatralia	Congratulations! It is a quiet remarkable achievement in air travel industry even in human communication too..
Robert Supuy from Costa Rica	Congratulations for your new bird. There are companies that just make planes... but Airbus makes aviation history! We wish the A380 a very long live in the line of products of Airbus.
Hans Bussink from Geneva, Switzerland	Congratulations with this new milestone! Great to notice how 4 major ('old') European countries can successfully collaborate. Not only a major technology success but also a logistics achievement. Best wishes to Airbus Corp. for a big commercial success.
Richard Vysoký from Prague/Czech Republic	This aircraft is wonderful visiting card of old aeronautical Europe. I marvel at its perfekt wing! I wish A380 good luck!
sen yunus from cernay france	merveilleux votre a380 et a3xx
Bruno Misseeuw from Belgium	A great day for Airbus, A great day for Europe! I would like to congratulate everyone at Airbus and those at the other many different companies througout Europe who have helped Airbus with turning this dream into a reality. I believe this is a wonderful example of the power of European collaboration and state of the art technology. Personally I can't wait to see this big bird fly with my own eyes. I wish you all the best A380! Bruno Misseeuw
Juan Antonio Lopez Delgado from Santa Cruz de tenerife	It's fantastic only to see it. I hope to have a fly not only with a virtual model, but in a real Airbus A-380-800 next time. Congratulatioes from Canary Islands.
Dennis Bilbrey from Pflugerville, TX USA	When will you have models of this aircraft to put in my office. Either to build or built already. This is an awsome aircraft, I can't wait to see it sometime. Good Job.

Alain PIREYRE from Paris / France	As a child I saw Concorde flying above my head in Toulouse countryside. As a young engineer, I spent some time manufacturing A320 parts. I can see now a stunning aircraft which will bring Airbus ahead of industry. This is a message which should drive us European people, to work closer every day. Congratulations to people who made it. Waiting to see the A380 above my head ...
Hans-Guenter Thonemann from Germany	Congratulations for such a success & incredible engineering / logistics performance - a fantastic ceremony with the 'right' statements. Cant wait to see this gigantic bird fly
Renato Garcia from Brasil	Simplesmente fantástico, veno acompanhando o projeto e montagem desta maravilhosa máquina. SUCESSO !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Howard Gaydon from UK	Wow!!!! Just fantastic, be very proud of what you have achieved.
Karim Bitar from Beirut, Lebanon	Congratulations on such an amazing aircraft and achievement! Way to go Airbus!!
Jean-Yves Massenet from Hudson Canada	Good A380 Launch and Reveal site.
jose luis vazquez from salamanca, plaza mayor de europa	BUENA SUERTE A 380 BONNE CHANCE A380 GOOD LUCK A 380 GUTES GLÜCK A 380
Lars Käck from Sweden	ORGULLOSO DE SER EUROPEO!!!! Big event
abu taher laskar from athens/usa	I am excited to know about your launch plan and I wish you success in your effort to revolutionize air travel through the launch of this sleek giant A380. I am confident that you would be able to prove the skeptics wrong about the weight issue and would emerge a winner.
David Haveman from Netherlands	All the Best. A380 for a tremendous flight. My compliments.
Basil BARNETT from Bahamas	Awesome!
Martin de beer from Netherlands	The Airbus 380. An example of 'joint' engineering between countries with a different aerospace history and philosophy. After the Concorde Europe proved it is capable to do great things. This masterpiece of engineering will 'color' the European aerospace industry.
bert jurgens from netherlands	wow, congratulations, i'm looking forwrd to fly with the a380.
Ashor El-margane from Tripoli-Libya	Congratulation For acheiving this success and wishing you all the best
Richard Borsu Felix from Austria	A super plane from Made in EU. It sounds great for European future. This plane is huge but we have to built space cruisers for the future. We need orbital hotels for special guests. The future is coming soon. Congratulation A380 Team.
Panagiotis DRAKOPOULOS from Patras - GREECE	The flagship of Europe, the flagship of aviation !!!! Good luck up to the end.
Edward Philpott from Neston	Well done Airbus!A most beautiful machine and a triumph of what europe can achieve when our petty differences can be put aside.Boeing must be in a sulk as their dreamliner is still only software not hardware!
Frank Roumell from Odessa TX. USA	I think the new Air Bus 380 is so awsome I hope it does well. And look forward to flying on one in the future.
Cesar Alvarez from Barranquilla / Colombia	I want to be one of the first colombians in the Airbus A380. Congratulations!!
Hernandez Guerra Victorino from Zaragoza Spain	Congratulations Europe, for this fabulous airplane it is a really dream. My best wishes for the future.
JOSE RAFAEL SOTO MATIAS from ALMERIA/SPAIN	this aircraft is fantastic. please the web in spain, because is dificult read all in other language diferent spanish. Who spanish is very happy to colaboration in this proyect

Reuven G. Yativ from Kiryat Arba / ISRAEL	Hi, Airbus team, good luck with the new and fabulous craft. It even seems more exciting than the Concorde (RIP). Just please, based on the superior European design, don't give it a cheap, bus-like interior and feeling. I have flown B737s and mid-range Airbuses and I must say that the Americans know what the luxury feeling is. So, again, good luck and may you never know any accidents. Best regards Reuven ali bubba from toronto,canada	A great day in aviation history. Im grateful being able to experience it in my lifetime.
Attila D from Hungary/Budapest	CONGARTULATION TO AIRBUS!! It is a great, wonderful aircraft. And it is European. Great!!! I hope I can see it one day at Budapest Airport in the future.
Jose M Guarin from Colombia	Congratulations!
ÖRJAN Wickström from sweden	good look over the wide world
Nidhish Sekar from USA	Good work by Airbus...!
Christo van Rensburg from South Afirca	about time that we have a replcament for the Concorde, it certainly took long enough to get that old antique out the skies! Our kids will wonder what the Concorde ever was when they sit in this baby!
W. Eric Johnson from Westmeath Ont. Canada	My son David and his involvement with the A380 through Honeywell Canada's equipment on the aircraft has given me a continuing picture of the growth and fruition of this king of the skies. All of Europe should be proud of all the participants in this project.
John Pedersen from Auckland/New Zealand	Good Luck! Number one looks awesome. Long may she fly.
Rob Kemp from Slough, Berkshire UK	Congratulations on a superb looking aircraft, a credit to the nations involved and i wish you all the best in the coming months :0). My mobile number is also the model number and series number of your aircraft. I remember going to Stansted Airport and speaking to a person who wanted to know the super jumbo model number in 1995 i said it would be the A380 and it is :0).
Jordi Fernández from Barcelona - Catalonia	Moltíssimes felicitats aquest avió es fantastic, espero poder viatjar i/o pilotarlo (si es que vola, perque encara no ha volat) algún dia. Salut
Héctor Alcalá from Mexico City	I´m proud of all the people who works in airbus, becuase they are working very hard to create the most sucefful factory of commercial airplanes.
Andrew Buckley from UK	No longer to be known as the super jumbo to me but as the wow plane it looks magnificent- I'll be deliberately trying to get a flight on one when they enter service
Allen McKinney from West Virginia/USA	Congradulations zu allen Qualität Fachleuten in Hamburg. Die besten Wünsche
Alan Cracknell from London	A remarkable Aircraft,wish you every sucesess with the first test flight.
German Tschopp from Argentina	A380 is the most spectacular aircraft i'd ever seen. Congratulations & I wish you luck for the next steps. I hope more news from you. Bye
Ian Reeves from Uk	Good Look. God bless all who fly on her. Which will be many tens of millions over the next decades. She looks beautyful. This is absolutely wonderful!! Great! Job well done.
Danny Bystroem from Sthlm	Congratulations
CLAUDIO NERY from WASHINGTON USA	THE WOLRD BECAME A SMALL PLACE....
Lex v. Leeuwen from Holland	The new 380 is beautiful. I will make a flight with it.
Roberto Jorge Quinn from Argentina	My best wishes with the aircarft

Tasos Flambouras from Athens. Greece	When everything seems to be going against you, remember that the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it. -Henry Ford Congratulations and best of luck.
Eldon Sawyers from Wonthaggi Australia	Another Milestone in world aviation along with Edward Pearce of Temuka who flew the worlds first plane, DC3 Dakota, Commet and 747 has been reached. I was priviledged enough to fly in an Air New Zealand A320 from Christchurch to Melbourne last March and it beat the Boeing product hands down - more comfort, more room for a tall person. If the A380 is half as good it will be magnificent. Good luck with the programme and I hope to fly in one in the future - when I go to the UK next month would be great. Kind regards Eldon
Jonah Hu from Guelph/Canada	The Airbus 380 looks excellent!
Prabhu Shankar from Denver, USA	Awesome! Congratulations!!! Can't wait to fly!
Nick Catchpole from London	A wonderful day for aviation and European cooperation! Congratulations Airbus, you have created a beautiful plane. A dream has come true. A vision has turned into reality.
Frank Fischer from Braunschweig/Germany	A time to celebrate! CONGRATULATIONS! Always three green and happy landing for the flapship of the 21th century. Can't wait to fly on the A380!
Leonardo M Mena - Silva from Lycksele / Sweden	Ett stor Grattis !!!!! Hurra !!!! Congratulation A380
Guillermo Fernandez from Venezuela	The aviation entusiasthics are exultant because this goal of all mankind, not about aviation, but the collaboration and peace and union. Viva Airbus 380. An integration experience !!
Gloutte :) from Belgium	ça déchire sa race cet avion !
Dee Lana from UK	God bless every takeoff and landing, long may the future fly safely from port to port!
Juan Francisco from Puerto Rico	Well, we have to say it, IT'S GREAT what you guys there at Airbus have achieve, as a regard I would like to said THANKS to those who give their brights ideas and creations to make this dream of you'rs to be a REALITY!!! Well with out further to do THANKS AND I CAN'T WAIT TO GET MYSELF ON THE NEW A380... Sincerly: Juan F.....
Trevor Jones from Tamworth/ UK	What a fantastic aircraft ! Can't wait to fly in it.Congratulations to all involved.
Geoffrey Wayne Estry from Turkey	I have travelled on nearly every passenger aircraft since I was 5 years old the gooney birds (DC3) up to the most modern of aircrafts of Today I can still remember my first flight on a 747 in 1974 which replaced the 707's in Australia It was like travelling on an oceanliner in the sky. But NOW YOU REALLY DO HAVE AN OCEANLINER IN THE SKY!!! Bravo
Roberto Bellotti from Milano / Italy	Great !! a very good job. My best compliments. Roberto barnes david from Australia	Understand the first route will be London Sydney, will the plane come to Australia before this 2006 ?

toni sarazin-hennion from MARSEILLE	Magnifique spectacle ce matin suivi live sur'public'(Sénat et Assemblée nationale):voici une étape d un EFFORT en commun d une équipe qui ne baisse pas les bras. Bel exemple Bravo pour'le petiit prince'...J espère que ma santé d ici qq années me permettra d embarquer en cie de ma femme et bien sûr d une des petites filles ou d un des petits fils :AU REVOIR et vive TOULOUSE!
Susan Scholl from Springfield, USA	I am looking forward to flying on this fabulous aircraft.
jeff bishop from los angeles USA	An incredible plane for an incredible company. Stunning revealing ceremony as well. I cannot wait to take a ride in one!
Babatunde Bolarin from Detroit / USA	A true aeronautic marvel...long live airbus
Kevin Yang from USA	Whoa. The A380 looks pretty interesting, especially the painting video. Nice work!
Brian Higgs from USA	Congrats on a job well done !! I await the first flight with great expectations and fervent glee !!!
Glenn Rapson from Sydney, Australia	This is an incredible aircraft, with the capacity to reduce the distance between far cities. We in Australia have always felt isolated, so we look forward to welcoming this aircraft 'Down Under'...
Stefan Skärhult from Stockholm/Sweden	This inspires me to continue my and many others exploring minds to achive something that might be difficult at first. Allmost everything is possible. Get on board and welcome to the future! Congratulations!
Paulo César Reis Cardoso de Mello from Belo Horizonte/Brasil	I wish the best for A380. It 's wonderful.
Dayle Slaughter from New Zealand	What a plane! i cant wait to use it, job well done europe
Gary Dale from Goshen,In USA	Good luck with a great plane. Looking forward to my first A380 flight.
Kehinde Sofoluwe from Lagos, Nigeria	Congratulations to the entire staff of Airbus and its affiliates for this momemtous occasion. You have taken aviation to the next level. I can't wait to see the A380 in flight, better yet to fly in it.
Helen Thompson from Yarm/UK	WOW. Being a frequent air traveller I cannot wait to board this amazing engineering and aviation achievement. Congratulations to all involved in its evolution and happy travelling to all those lucky enough to fly aboard her.
Fiona Gould from Antofagasta, Chile	Wow, I can't wait to fly on that!! It's incredible!!! Good luck for this and for the future!!
daisy nogoy from troy, michigan USA	MABUHAY ANG AIRBUS380 !!!!! This is the birth of a product of technology and innovations of a group of individuals dedicated to the mission culminating on this day. More power to all of you specially to GuyNoel Dufour. He gave his heart and soul.

david estrada from cascais,portugal	THE FUTURE OF AVIATION STARTS NOW! CONGRATULATIONS AIRBUS AND ALL THE TEAMS OF CONSTRUCTION OF THE A380.
Arnab Ghosh from India/Germany	I am thrilled by the the european super jumbo-success. Can't wait to take a comfortable flight home in the new A380.
Ronald Labrie from Ponoka, Canada	Well done Airbus! What a beautiful airplane! I have been anxiously awaiting the arrival of this amazing 'Jumbo'. Happy to hear that the gas mileage on this airplane is better thany any small comapct car. Have a great flight!
Daehwan Kim from Seoul/KOREA	Congratulation! This is another huge step in the commercial aircraft. Fortunately, KoreanAir decided to adopt this great airplane in their regular route, and I hope to enjoy the A380 as soon as possible.
Chris Reed from TN, USA	I can not wait to get a ride on a plane of this caliber.
Jason Klip from New Zealand	The A380. What an amazing aircraft you guys have come up with. I am an all Airbus fan, and had up until now decided that my flying career was going to finish with left seat in the A320. Now you have set a new bench mark, now its the A380. I am proud to be an airbus fan, and hope in time that you bring more products like the A380 will be. Congrats and best of luck.

Annie Fisher from Massachusetts, USA	This is an amazing step for air travel. I wish all the pilots and passengers of the first flight a safe journey and to tell the rest of the world what it was like to fly in such a massive creature. Especially what it was like to take off. Good Luck!!
Nate Ashinhurst from Nampa/ United States	Wow!!! The A380 is gonna be a magnificent addition to the airliner world!!!
giovanni caasi from quinter,ks,USA	you're simply the best on top
Aaron Ohrt from United States	I believe the A380 will be the magnificent flying machine in which everyone will envy. I can't wait to have the opportunity to fly in one.
George Tsambasis from London, UK / Athens, GR	Something to make me even more proud of beeing European. A truly great day for European aviation! I wish a long and happy life to Airbus A380! I hope you will have beautifull flights all across the oceans and continents for the pleasure of people and civil aviation. Show around the world what Europe can do when united! Thanks Airbus! Thanks Europe!
Afranio Simões from Belo Horizonte - BRAZIL	Fantastic! Awesome! Another page in history we'll never forget. Congratulations Airbus! An unique moment and landmark in the human being existence.
Barry McQuade from Houston, United States of America	Congratulations on achieving a monumental task. Your vision for the future will improve air transportation greatly. The dedication of your entire company and its staff is commendable in bringing new ideas, technology, manufacturing techniques, and marketing excellence to planet earth. Bon voyage!
Sheila Salleh from Singapore	A very excellent invention indeed, will certainly be the smartest way to travel in the future and i cannot wait to be among the first few passengers....
Gerardo Castillo from Mexico City	Muchas felicidades a todos en AIRBUS, que bueno que llegó el tan esperado día de la presentación. Espero pronto poder ver el A380 acá en México
Bengt Magnhagen from Linkoping/Sweden	I want to congratulate Europe to be the technology winner in ths aeroplane race. Bengt
Carlos Omaña from Mérida Venezuela	oh-my-god-!!! what an airplane!!!! just that....
Eric Smith from Pensacola, USA	Never before have I seen an aircraft as beautiful as the A380. My heartfelt congratulations to the UK, France, Germany, Spain and all of the other countries who were involved in this magnificent plane. Best of wishes for a great future in 21st century aviation.
Edwin Matos from Santiago, Dominican Republic	I wish the best in this new project. It's tremendous, and I'll be weating for the first trip to Dom. Rep. Be sure I'll be one of the passenger. Good look. With love, Edwin.-
James Dean from North Carolina / USA	Great Design and Interior. Looking forward to Gamble, Drink and Have a good time and making travel more comfortable.
Andrew Pym from Melbourne Australia	CANT WAIT! to see it, hear it, fly in it...
Jeffrey Jones from San Francisco, USA	Bravo on the launch of the A380. Here's to all going well with your new airplane. Of course, we Americans can only envy your success. But a healthy competition will be good for all of us. Given Europeans' success with the Huygens probe and now with the successful rollout of the A380, it has been a good week for European technological prowess. Again, I say Bravo!
David Featherstone from Belmont, North Carolina, U.S.A.	Looks fab...can't wait to take a ride.

Evaldo Aurelio de Lavos from Sao Paulo / Brazil	Congratulations to all companies and countries involved on this great mark in the aviation history! This is a great example of union and commitment to be passed to the world. I´m an airplane enthusiast, i have flied on almost all kind of commercial airplanes and I hope to fly this one someday! Once again, CONGRATULATIONS! CONGRATULATIONS!!!
Dexter Kalloo from Trinidad and Tobago	A job well done by the European Consortium. Bought a model of the Airbus A380 by Revell - scale 1:144 in St. Maarten in 2003 and am looking forward to the day when it would take to the sky. Hope that we could see the Airbus A380 in Trinidad some time in the near future and looking forward to travelling in it some day.
Sylvain Jetté from Montréal/Québec/Canada	As a Pratt & Whitney Canada employee, supplier of the APU engine of the A380, i'm looking forward for the first flight of this wonderful airplane. Congratulations Airbus!
David Probine from Auckland New Zealand	Congratulations to the Airbus team who took on the challenge of designing and building the A380! What an incredible aircraft. I look forward to the historical first flight date.
AGUEDA CENTENERA RAMOS from GUADALAJARA- SPAIN	QUIERO TRANSMITIRLES MI MAS SINCERA ENHORABUENA POR EL AIRBUS 380. EL DIA 11 DE MARZO EL TERRORISMO ME ARRANCÓ LA PERSONA CON LA QUE COMPARTIA MI VIDA. SE LLEVÓ A UN GRAN HOMBRE, A UN GENIO DE LA AERONÁUTICA QUE DEDICÓ SUS ÚLTIMOS DÍAS A TRABAJAR EN EL 380. HOY 17 DE ENERO DE 2005, EL MARAVILLOSO AIRBUS ES UNA REALIDAD. DESDE EL CRUEL Y TRAICIONERO ATENTADO DE MADRID, EL GOBIERNO Y DIFERENTES ORGANIZACIONES, HAN HOMENAJEADO A LAS VÍCTIMAS DE DIFERENTES MANERAS. HOY DESDE EL SILENCIO, SERGIO DE LAS HERAS CORREA, HA RECIBIDO SU MAYOR PLACA, SU MAYOR MEDALLA. SU TRABAJO, SU TESÓN, SU ILUSIÓN, Y SU ESFUERZO, HA PISADO LAS PISTAS Y SURCARÁ EL CIELO. ENAMORADO DE LOS RETOS, INSUSTITUIBLE, VALIENTE, ASERTIVO, ALEGRE, OPTIMISTA, BRILLANTE, EFICACIENTE, EFICAZ, CRATIVO, METÓDICO, DISCIPLINADO, ELOCUENTE, TRABAJADOR INCANSABLE, CON 28 AÑOS LO TENÍA TODO Y TODO SE LO DIO A LA AERONÁUTICA. DURANTE AÑOS, SUPO CONTAGIARME ESE AMOR Y HOY ME CONGRATULA QUE AIRBUS 380 SEA UN ÉXITO. ENHORABUENA. AGUEDA CENTENERA RAMOS
Mabvuto Mkwayaya from Trenton, NJ, U.S.A.	I have followed the development of this amazing aircraft through different kinds of media since it's design was conceived. I am a great fan of aviation, once had ambitions of becoming a pilot but had no exposure growing up in a country like Zambia. I am now a Civil Engineer working in the USA and my hope is I will get to ride on the A380 on my many travels. Congratulations Airbus!!!
Joseph McDonough from Kingston, NY. / USA	Congratulations on the A380. It appears to be a splendid aircraft. I'm looking forward to seeing it's maiden flight, it will be a significant event in the history of aviation. Best of luck.
Janice Brown from Ayer	Wow! Beautiful.
daniel taylor from sydney australia	Hi there i like it and its french and made in france. This proves that the best things come from france.
Jason Watkins from USA	Excellent!!! Great job, this is the first great feat of aviation's second century... Congratulations!
Virley Souza from Goiania/Brazil	You won the race! A380 is the first 21 century air machine!

Paulo Seth from Porto Alegre, Brazil	What else will I live to see flying in the sky? Our civilization is capable of such technical wonders, but so insensitive to misery. I hope what we, as a Species, learn from the technical challenges we face, will be enough to save us from ourselves. Nevertheless, is an impressive machine. Congratulations.
Jorge Mungarro from Mexico City	Dear Airbus friends... It was facinating for me to read about the Airbus Industrie steps through the commercial aviation in the last three decades... That was two years ago in my city, Mexico City, enjoying every page of that amazing book ' Airbus, Europe's High Flyer'... Airbus people believed in their dream... they worked very hard to reach it... they created a completely new standars for aircraft manufacture companies as a Europe team... and now, Airbus crew can fly higher... higher as their soul... higher as all their family : A300-B, A320, A319, A318, A310, A330, A340... The A380 represent one of the last steps to the sky conquest... conquest that I feel part of me... because I consider Airbus trayectory as an example that we need to follow... that we need to make part of our lives... always through the air... the air of our home... the earth... Congratulations... Your friend Jorge Mungarro Airbus Fan...
Todd Mushaw from Oak Hill/USA	Thank you Airbus for advancing civilization to an even grater end. Much success! Todd
Eamonn Gormley from San Francisco	This is not just a great day for Airbus or the countries involved in the A380's development. It is a great day for Europe and it makes me proud to be European.
Sam Hagen from Pennsylvania-USA	Congratulations on a marvelous accomplishment. I must book a flight as soon as possible.
Wayne Wynter from Kingston, Jamaica	Truly a magnificent accomplishment. I await the launch of this majestic wonder.
Liang Oliver from China	Wish A380 win all the success in future's commercial aviation business; Wish A380 give all the dream to whom who have highly expectation!!
Charlie Fisher from Romsey, UK	Many congratulations on an achievement which can make all Europeans - and British - proud. I look forward to travelling on one and hope you reach the 250 figure quickly! Saludos desde Inglaterra, Charlie
Vince carrozza from Sydney, Australia	I enjoyed the unveiling but i must say i particularly applaud Airbus and all the european nations ability to show the world that with cooperation, anything is possible. Congratulations and thankyou for inspiring me and I'm sure many others.
Dorian Davies from Marlborough, England	What a fantastic avievement; the A380 is a phenomenol success and everyone who has worked on it (including my brother in law!) should be extremely proud of themselves! As with Concorde before it, it also demonstrates that the best ideas, innovations, technologies and products do not always come out of a certain country who would have us all believe otherwise! Very pleased to see that the world's best airline hae bought a few - can't wait to spend some more money with Sir Richard Branson when I take my first flight in one. All the very best for the future!

Alexandre Rocha from Goiânia/ Brazil	This is the new jet to motivate old men to carry on dreaming with aviation.
bob JAMES from Canada	well done simply an amazing feat looking forward to see it fly and go into service.
Andre Armstrong from New York, U.S.A.	Thank you I can't wait ride.
Uirassu Litwinski from Porto Alegre - Brazil	I'm expecting it. Finally denis conrad from Strasbourg / France	Je n'ai pas pu participer à la tombola pour une raison que j'ignore l'aplet ne fonctionne plus ! alors je vous laisse un message dans le livre d'or. ça fait presque 10 ans que je suis acccro au A380 (A3XX à l'origine), et je souhaiterai tant pourvoir avoir moi aussi une belle maquette réduite de cet avion magnifique dont je suis très fier. Je suis en ce moment aux Etats Unis pour affaire et je n'ai de cesse de faire la promotion de l'avion auprès de mes interlocuteurs en utilisant les sites de Airbus et de TV5 qui montre des articles très bien documentés sur le sujet.
Gabriel Cavazos - Villanueva from Monterrey, Mexico	As an aviation enthusiast, I am really excited for the A380's reveal. I hope to be on board of one of them very soon! The A380 is a celebration of the European unity and also an achievement of global cooperation. Congratulations!
Rajan Sachdeva from New York, USA	A Dream Come true..
Michael Tyler from Salt Lake City, Utah	Wow! That's remarkable new airplane! Hope will be very successful on flight into the world! Welcome new world!
MELCHOR BRITO from ACAPULCO, MEXICO	MUCHISIMAS FELICIDADES POR SU NUEVA AERONAVE, REALMENTE ES INCREIBLE; LES DESEO MUCHISIMOS EXITOS EN ESTA CARRERA TAN COMPETIDA, EN HORABUENA!
Bruce Moffat from Christchurch New Zealand	What an amazing aircraft. I can't wait to view the aircraft in person. Congratulations Airbus....Job well done
Harbinder sethi from Chicago/usa	Congrats, thanks for giving a wonderful piece of engineering to the world. This is going to change the way people fly.Cant wait any more till I can fly in it.
Radhey Tiwari from Canoga Park, U.S.A.	Great Airplane.
Lorna Salvona from Gloucester	I love the new aircraft and i would love to fly in it one day. But this website is brilliant!!!
HASNIZAM AHMAD from MALAYSIA	new revolution of flaying technology
Steven Westlund from Schererville, IN USA	It is truly a beautiful aircraft, can't wait to see it in the air. How about someday bringing one to the EAA fly in in Oshkosh wisconsin. Just thinking out loud.
Alejo Bermeo from Quito	it's great to finally reach the day whe we'll be able to see the airbus A-380 in the skies. Congratulations Airbus, and I hope that the airplane arrives someday to the new airport in Quito, hehe. Aguante TAME...ALEJO
Cesar ASMAT from ARUBA	Congratulations, and succes! my best whisshes for yours.
william uruski from guelph ontario canada	CONGRATULATIONS !!!!!
Lech Pruchnik from Poland	Airbus A380 is fine aircraft. Congratulations for whole group of Airbus. This aircraft has beautiful appearance and it is very functional. I would like to fly in future this machine. I wish farthest progress. Jest poprostu zajefajny :) zawsze zastanawialem sie jak taki kolos moze uniesc sie w powietrze, jednak moze.
Bernard O'Rourke from Halifax, Canada	Congratulations on the launch of the latest addition to the Airbus product line . I can't wait to see the aircraft in person .
LESTER PATTERSON from MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA/CALIF U.S.A.	CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL AT AIRBUS.CANT WAIT TO SEE THE TOUCHDOWN AT MELBOURNE OR L.A. GOOD LUCK.

karel vanhees from Belgium	Congratulations to the entire Airbus team! Again a superplane, worthy the name Airbus! Can't wait to see it dominate the skies! Succes!
padraig magabhan from san diego	Congratulations for your new airplane, I am 4 years old i love flying with mom and dad...
Victor Espinoza from Mexico city / Mexico	Congratulations, this is an example of the perfect things that Europe are doing since years ago. Your are an example for every company in the world.
David Baldemora from Miami, USA	A monumental achievement! A 21st century aircraft for the 21st century traveller.
Apichit Anantaseth from Bangkok, Thailand.	Hope to see A380 at BKK Airport
Victor M. from Orlando, FL	I am an American that has loved and flown the 747 since I was a kid in the 1970's. Now there is a new jumbo jet plane that is built for the 21st Century with a bar, a gym, it's incredible!! As a 38 year old adult, I feel more excited to fly the A380 now than I was when I was a kid flying on the 747 for the first time. Congratulations Europe!
laura petersen from mesa, az USA	I hope this beautiful plane can land in Phoenix, I would love to see it land and take off
Andrew Davis from Australia	Europe is asserts its leadership. A tremendous achievement. Well down to all involved.
ashis biswal from india	Congrats, the A380 is just stunning & awesome. let the pepole of this world fly in the 8th wonders of the world. ASHIS
Carlos Sierra from Colombia	CONGRATULATIONS!!FELICITACIONES!!!! Today had been a great day for the aviation in the world. Wishing you all the best. Hopefully some day I'll be aboard on it. Good luck from Colombia.
Robert Emmons from Providence, Rhode Island USA	Congratulations on what can only be called a triumph in modern aviation history! The vision of bringing this magnificent aircraft to fruition only shows what mankind can do when all of mankind can work in harmony and peace. Again, best wishes to all of you at Airbus Industries for your amazing achievement in bringing the A380 to reality!
Pedro Almeida from Lisboa/Portugal	I am marvelled by the vision and the technological challenge. Congratulaitons to all those who dreamt and had the courage to dare. This is European Entrepreneurship!
Pranee Jencharat from THAILAND	Coolllllllllllllllllllll.....Super Jumbo. Congratulations.....:):):):)
Robert Bucci from Staten Island, NY USA	I can't wait to see the A-380 fly. I hope I can take a ride on one as soon as possible. Robert
Davif Scerri from Melbourne, Australia	I am very impressed with the new A380 and i cant wait to fly on one of these although i do have to wait a fair time till it comes to Melbourne. i am also intrested in doing a course in avionics which may include me working on this aeroplane. Well keep it up and good luck with future projects
Michael Ferguson from United States	It looks relly cool. It is a cruise ship in the air!! Congrats!!
Geoff Waller from Sydney Australia	Congratulations to all of you on the A380. I look forward to many years of flying on your amazing conceptional aircraft. I hope that the buyers, unlike the original 747, with the upper deck lounge, don't follow commercial greed and take out all the recreational features and have it crammed with 800+ seating. In its planned concept, flying on the A380 will at last be an experience. Viva Geoff.

Dante Nuto from Brasília	It´s wonderfull... I don´t have words to describe my fellings about this God thing! Congratulations!
Dave George from Brisbane AUSTRALIA	Absolutely Astronomical.
Nick Pavlov from Toronto/Canada	CONGRATS EUROPE!!!-You rock! You really deserve being the proudest folks for such a milestone achievement!!!
Donn G from USA	WOW!
Bill Davison from Melbourne , Australia	Congratulations to all at Airbus for a remarkable acheivment. I t will be a great sight on arrival in Melbourne.
Carlos Alfredo from Brasil	The A380 is the initial step of a new age for all the Commercial Airlines of the world. I wish the best votes of progress and sucesfull for the A380, and I hope in the future to see the A380 operating regular routes to my country. Receive my best regards, Carlos Alfredo
Eduardo Zarate from MEX	Jan 18, 2005. Another inmortal date for aviation history.
Thiago André Nunes de almeida from Sorocaba Brazil	O A380 Superou o maximo de seu comcorrente.
Farooq Ahmed from USA	Awesome, wonderful, incredible..It is really an amazing to see such a huge bird standing. Really it is amazing to the eyes. I cannot take my eyes out of the cute but huge and gigantic bird.
Sebastián Mejía from Chicago, United States of America	I cannot say enough about this plane. It is stunning looking at the pictures on the Internet, this gigantic plane is simply the best, better than all the rest. Better than anyone. I would be kinda nice seeing this plane landing at O'hare Airport. Congratulations to all the A380 people.
Satidchoke Phosaard from Bangkok/Thailand	What a great aircraft! I can't wait to fly by A380. A 380- a technological marvel. Always been an admirer of Airbus technologysince A300. Congratulations!
Nikhil Antani from Canada	Nikhil Antani Toronto Canada
Saad Cheema from Canada	'When the skies were made, the birds took thier flight. But no one knew that the Airbus Industry would rule the skies of the world one day.' The A380 is coming in the near future. No one can disagree with my statement; no doubt it is true. The only airliner in the world which is capable to travel the farthest and carry the most passengers around the globe. Airbus A380, we welcome you to the skies. May your journey be the most amazing one in the aviation industry. Regards, Saad Cheema.
Saifulnizam Saion from Singapore	The sheer size of the aircraft will cast a big shadow on the ground below. On the ground, it will eclipse all other aircraft and in the air it will eclipse the sun. Congratulations Airbus!
Sma Chu Chu from Hong KONG	Great !! the biggest airplane in the world, I wants to a pilot of A380.
Shaan Sewak from Sydney, Australia	Airbus, you have achieved the impossible. You saw through the entire construction program, even with budget downfalls and heavy criticism from parts of the aviation community. You also converted me from a Boeing fan to an Airbus fan. The A380 is magnificent. Thank you Airbus

klodian xhepaj from nanaimo bc canada	i would like to congratulate the airbus team, i was following the production of airbus step by step and i am very happy to see airbus 380 in its final shape i hope i will take my first flight in it as soon as possible i would like to thank God and airbus staff for providing us with such a magnificent product
THOMAS HARRIS from MATHERVILLE,USA	GREAT JOB ON A BEAUTIFUL AIRLINER.I AM AN INGOT CASTER AT ALCOA DAVENPORT WORKS AND PROUD TO BE A SMALL PART IN YOUR AIRCRAFT.
W. Davis Jr. from Atlanta GA	What an impressive engineering wonder! Congratulations Airbus on the worlds newest flagship!
Richard Zibrida from Washington, Pa USA	I'm a Material Resource Planner at Dynamet Inc. in Washington Pa (USA). We are a titanium bar and wire producer for various United States and European companies. We have sold a great amount of material to the European company, Lisi Aerospace (Blanc Aero)for use on the A380. I am proud that my company and I have been a small part of the production this airplane.
mechel Linus Selkin from Canada	I am pleased to see the revolutionary design for unstoppable movement of people -- who don't want to waste valuable time... as rail travel today; in meeting a similar radical transformation comfortably, this time the agent of change is, of course, the internet.
Vikas Nain from India	Here's to the EU's success in hope that Canada will exemplify the European dream; given her capacity and proximity. A380 is superbbravo airbus team . 1-18-05
Alfred Krewson from Portland, OR, USA	Hi there...Greetings from Portland, Oregon...the great Northwest. I've been following the development of this fantastic plane through Airliners.net...from pieces floating up the canals and travelling by roads to today's unveiling. I watched part of the ceremonies on US TV news. I will be following this bird wiht lots of interest. Keep up the good work...a truly great venture indeed. Alfie
ceasar lomeli from portland, or	love to be a passenger some day soon
PETRE CURCA from USA	VENI VIDI VICI
Ettienne Botha from Australia	Well done Airbus Industrie, I am glad good engineering survived the Sept. 11 attacks!
Yu Cheng from China	Congratulations! Thanks for giving us such a brilliant aircraft. Cannot wait to try it!
Patrick Constant from United States of America	Well done! A monumentally paramount acheivement.. What could posibly not the A380???? Patrick
Giuseppe Sergi from New York/United States	Good Luck for our European Dream Project. Congratulations on launching A380.
choi kuk,kun from south korea	I think , A380 is very wonderful!.^^ I respect AIRBUS COM. as my future company.
roger gonzalez from Costa Rica	congratulations for the new airbus plane, it is fantastic and i hope win a airbus A380 scale
Darryl Nelson from Toronto	This achievement marks another great day in the history of flight and that to Airbus industries. I have long awaited the debut of this great technological accomplishment. I can only hope my national airline carrier will welcome this aircraft to it's fleet, so as all Canadians can enjoy it's grace.

Jim Shortman from Lantzville/Canada	I like your new airplane. It reminds me of when I was a kid back in the 60's, watching the first Air Canada 747 fly over my grandfathers house in Surrey B.C. I look forward to seeing my first A380 fly over our house in Lantzville on Vancouver Island, on its way to Vancouver International airport. Best wishes.
Joey Wong from Singapore	Well done Airbus. I can't wait to catch the first flight.
Ahmad Fairuz Masduki from Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia	Please send me more info on this plane,tq
Gerardo Ramos from Tegucigalpa, Honduras	Deseo primeramente felicitar al consorcio Airbus, soy un fanatico de su empresa y de la aviacion comercial en general, he estado esperando este dia desde hace mucho tiempo. Aunque soy un conocedor empirico de la aviacion conozco lo suficiente para poder darle el valor y la importancia que tiene la introduccion del Airbus A380 al mercado mundial. Dejenme decirles que verdaderamente es UNA OBRA DE ARTE, por lo cual los felicito y espero algun dia tener la dicha y el placer de poder sentarme en un asiento de una obra de tal magestuosidad. Nuevamente permitanme felicitarles y a la vez desearles logros cada vez mayores en la avion comercial. creanme que mi sueño como profesional es poder laborar algun dia en su empresa y contribuir con tal organizacion. Felicidades.
John Rider from Fort Worth USA	i am an airplane specializing in gliders and your aircraft is fabulous
FRANCISCO ACOSTA from BRONX,NEWYORK	Good luck,to this beatiful airplane design for the new generation, I hope to fly one day in this beatiful plane design from GOD HANDS.. GOD BLESS.
ORLANDO PINTO from MIAMI USA.	I love to reed about air planes and I think this A380 is a gigante of the planes technology in the XXI century.
Danielle Buggs from San Marcos/USA	Congratulations for this goal..... Congratulations. My little niece and I can't wait to see the A380 flying into LAX.
Agustin Catellani from Santa Fe/Argentina	There's no much words big enough to say about the plane. This time Airbus really did it!!! A great plane, in many ways. I hope I can see one some day here in Argentina!!! Congratulations, Airbus team!!!!
John McTyre from San Francisco/USA	I remember the introduction of the Boeing 747 when I was in high school and thought that it was the biggest aircraft that could ever be built. I am glad to have lived long enough to see the aerospace engineering has not reached its horizon. congratulations to a job well done.
Steve Patten from Victoria BC Canada	Well done to all the partners to produce a magnificent aeroplane. I also wish to thank Richard Branson for saving the UK's face and ordering six of them. It's a pity the country's largest carrier can't show the same confidence or foresight as Virgin and support European workers who's skill and ingenuity has been proven on this very special day.
HUMBERTO SANCHEZ from MEXICO	Congratulations to Europe!!!, It's a huge lesson about the union can do. Latinoamerica has to learn more about the excellent results if we work togheter.
Anthony Moss from Nassau, Bahamas	She's a beautiful bird can't wait to see one in action soon. She looks graceful and elegant like her siblings the A340-500/600 my favourite in the Airbus Family
Harold Grobarek from Chicago, IL, USA	Magnificent! I can't wait to fly in it. My wife and I flew on the Concord and I have a feeling that the A380 will be as exciting as the SST.
	Congratulations to Airbus Industries.
Manish Thaker from Duluth. Georgia. USA.	Congratulations to the governments of the UK, France, Germany and Spain. The A380 is a truly fitting successor to the Concorde, as the crown jewel of European Aviation.

Vanda Durao from Lisbon/Portugal	Congratulations to all the people involved in making this dream come true. Hope someday i have the opportunity to fly this new giant of the air. Best wishes
Cathy Haag from Keswick, Canada	I dreamt of such an aircraft nearly 30 years ago as a young child. Newly smitten with airplanes and travel I thought 'Jumbo Jets' should be even bigger, like a double-decker bus. Now, there she is! I can't wait to be a passenger. Congratulations to all who made this dream into reality!
Richard Winterton from Federal Way Wa 98023	This is a beautiful aircraft. An outstanding achievement for all the parties involved. Cannot wait till it comes here to the Seattle area. Show it off to the world of aviation around the globe and be proud. Congratulations! I wish all involved with this good luck and good fortune. VERY NICE JOB. Honestly and genuinely, Richard D. Winterton.
Karen Spermon from Brisbane Australia	Well done guys! Can't wait to see one in person and have the opportunity of climbing aboard. Fantastic innovation.
Karl Mondo from Clarksburg, MD, USA	An awesome job. Can't wait to fly in one of those babies. Wish Airbus much success with this endeavor. You have some great people working for you.
LeRoy Garza from Lake Jackson, TX USA	This is indeed a marvel in aviation history. Congratulations on delivering on this important project that will benefit mankind for many years! Godspeed!
Jorge Andres Clavijo Ardila from Bogota / colombia	he seguido cada momento en la creacion del a380, soy auxiliar de vuelo y espero algun dia ser parte de la tripulacion de un a380 solo espero que uno de sus vuelos pase y aterrizze aqui en Bogota Colombia, tan solo para que la gente admire su grandeza y se detenga el tiempo por un instante asi como lo hizo una vez el concorde en su paso de demostracion. seguir segundo a segundo la ceremonia y espero pronto verlo surcar los aires.
Raymond Keegan from Idaho Falls, Idaho, USA	Best of luck with the A380. I look forward to flying on this aircraft in the coming years, and will intentionally select those airlines that fly it.
David Neaco from USA	This aircraft rocks! I've always thought of there being double decked aircraft someday and here it is!
Bill Daws from Australia	It has been a pleasure and a privelidge to play on behalf of my company a small part in the A380. My heartfelt congratulations to the Airbus management team and Launch customers for having the foresight, faith and commitment to deliver the vehicle to generate the next step change within the aviation industry.
Lane Parrott from Billings, MT, USA	Glad we can all quit holding our breath. The rolled out product is sure a beauty.
Richard McPherson from Canberra, Australia	Finally an aircraft manufacturer has developed a plane that truly leads the world with aesthetic beauty & style. That looks kick-ass Thank You
Anthony Higuera from Venezuela	Felicitaciones AirBus!!!! excelente avance tecnologico, espero pronto viajar en uno de estos aviones, Felicidades.
KARIM BELLAL from SEA/USA	OUTSTANDING JOB THE BEST A/C OF THE ERA.
Evanderson Claudino from Brasil	Essa é a melhor aeronave comercial que tenho o prazer de estar vivo pra ver. Essa aeronave é uma obra de arte que merece todo o reconhecimento. Parabéns aos idealizadores e a todos os que contribuíram para que esse sonho pudesse ser realizado, parabéns a AIRBUS!!!
John Mameamskum from Kawawachikamach, QC. Canada	Good Show AIRBUS on the A380. Quite an airplane to see for the 21st Century.

Venkatraman gurumurti from New Delhi/India	From Kitty Hawk to Toulouse what a breathtaking journey has it been for aviation. The A380 is a marvel of technology and reflects a wonderful fusion of engineering excellence and aesthetics. A380 would indeed put global civil aviation in a different trajectory altogether.
jose cisneros from queens	im 21 and soon i will join the marines and become a pilot, if i dont get killed at war i would love to fly this A380 jet. i always said i wouldn't fly a commercial airline but now that we have such plane i changed my mind.
Mark Gruber from Montreal	Great foresight by Singapore Airlines. wtg Airbus.
Austin Hansen from Irvine, California, USA	I have just seen one of the most beautiful aircraft in the world! The A380 will revolutionize air travel, as well as make it much more comfortable and enjoyable to fly! Great Job Airbus!!!
RICARDO HUT from PERU	HI, I want know more about a380,and others links to know more about it Congradulations!!!.
Niranjan NAYAK from India	Lovely display of transnational effort and success.. Kudhos to all the stakeholders..
Robert Perkins from NYC, USA	What a privilege to be one of the team to engineer such a beautiful, sleek piece of technology. As many have said, their passion for aviation was reinforced here seeing the function & fashion coming together. Wow what a nice sight for a life-long aviation pursuer. Hats off to the choreography of the unveiling! True to the passion for art in all things. If you would train a pilot.. call me anytime !
nicolas gomez-cuetara from spain	Quiero agradecer el crear, un producto que despierta las pasiones de aquellos aviones emblematicos que nos poenen a soñar en volar... Enhorabuena. Nicolas
Leo Flores from Albuquerque/United States	What stunning achievement for all of mankind. I can't wait to see the A380 in person. Congratulations!!! Very inspiring.
ricardo varsi from montreal/canada	Congratulations for this extraordinary event, for believing in the future of the civil air industry and for bringing the people of the world closer and closer every day! Welcome Airbus A380 to this wonderful world!
Joe George from Texas / USA	Airbus has taken a bold step in pushing the boundaries of air travel. With increasing globalization and movement of people and goods in the 21st century, the A380 looks poised to become a success. All the best to the team.
Des Bourke from Calgary/Canada	I've just downloaded an A380 - British Airways from FlightSim.com and am looking forward to flying home to Calgary CYXC from Toulouse as soon as possible. I've also entered your Win an A380 contest and would love to have a model of this Historic Aircraft. I wish A380 many good and fine Years of Flying.
William L. Collins from Ft. Lauderdale, Fl. U.S.A	As A former Aero Space worker, retired now. I can Appreciate the amount of planning and design that has gone into this Airplane. The amount coordinating with all the countrys involved bringing all the component together for a final assembly has to be the greatest task ever accomplished by any group or should I say NUMBER #1 TEAM ever. Respectfully Submitted William L. Collins Retired, Boeing Airplane Company
